

WINNIPEG WHISKY FESTIVAL AT HOME – HOST BIOGRAPHY

Colin MacDougall

Portfolio Consultant, Corby Spirit & Wine

While he's a dyed-in-the-wool "Bluenoser" who originally hails from Nova Scotia, Colin MacDougall travelled the corners of the earth before settling back into Canada on its Pacific Coast. Here he continued his passion for the spirit and wine industry becoming a specialist for an already well-respected and dedicated team at Corby's/Pernod-Ricard.

Colin knows that everything in life tells a story and he has been telling the story of the beverage industry since the early 2000's. He is an expert on the multitude of diverse stories and nuances world spirits have to offer, is a seasoned beverage program consultant, an award winning cocktail menu architect, and was a familiar face behind the bar as manager at a number of prestigious restaurants including Melbas on the Park, West, Pourhouse, and Blue Water Café.

For Colin, spirit education is more than simply an occupation – it's a golden opportunity to educate loyal fans and new acolytes alike championing the very best that the worlds distilleries and have to offer.

EVENT:

Canadian Whisky Masterclass: Through the eyes of an Old Fashioned

Wednesday, March 10 – 7PM CST

