

WINNIPEG WHISKY FESTIVAL AT HOME – HOST BIOGRAPHY

Scott Fraser

Regional Sales Manager, Tomatin Distillery

Scott Fraser is a Regional Sales Manager for the Tomatin Distillery Company Limited. Scott is responsible for Southern Europe, Africa and the Americas. This varied role sees him travel all across the world promoting Tomatin Single Malt Scotch Whisky.

Having worked in the industry for nearly ten years, Scott has worked on both the production and Sales and Marketing sides of the business. This invaluable experience has allowed him to understand the complexities of distilling with a passion for promoting quality Scotch whisky.

If he is not promoting whisky then he is likely to be found on the golf course or on the family farm in the Highlands of Scotland. He has travelled the world but his heart will always be in the Highlands.

EVENT:

The Softer Side of the Highlands: Tomatin
